

We are pleased to announce that submissions are now open for the 9th annual meeting of the Illinois Language and Linguistics Society (ILLS9), which will be held from March 31st-April 1st, 2017 in the ACES building at the University of Illinois at UrbanaChampaign.

ILLS a general linguistics conference open to any and all submission relating to language and linguistics. We primarily encourage submissions from graduate and undergraduate students.

Invited plenary speakers are:

Anna Papafragou (University of Delaware)
Lyn Wright (University of Memphis)
Michele Koven (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)

ILLS9 will also feature a special session organized around the conference theme “Language: Usage and Mind”. Submissions related to this theme are especially encouraged, though submissions are not limited to this theme.

Abstract Submissions

To submit an abstract, please visit: <http://linguistlist.org/easyabs/ILLS9>

Submissions are limited to single-author abstract and one multi-author abstract, OR two multi-author abstracts. First and presenting authors must be graduate students.

Abstracts should be maximum 500 words, with one extra page allowed for images, data, and/or references. Full references are not necessary; please use the (Author, Year) format. Abstracts should be submitted via EasyAbs on LinguistList.org in PDF format with NO IDENTIFYING INFORMATION of the presenter in the document.

Submissions will close on ~~December 2nd, 2016~~.

Extended deadline: January 2nd, 2017, 11:59pm

Authors will be notified of abstract decisions in February, 2017.

For more details, please visit our website (<http://ills.linguistics.illinois.edu/>) or contact us at ills-conference@illinois.edu